

WSHSRA STANDING RULES (Revised July, 2015)

- 1. Membership Forms: Must be completed, fees paid and both submitted to the Membership Secretary 10 days prior to entry date for the first rodeo in which the individual wants to compete. Memberships not submitted within this time frame will be accepted at the discretion of the Membership Secretary.
- 2. Fund Raising: Each member will be responsible for a minimum of $250 in fund raising, per the fund raising policy approved by the Board of Directors.
- 3. Awards: Awards will be standardized 1st through 10th place and presented at State Finals. When team jackets and/or shirts are awarded to members qualifying for the NHSFR or the SSIR, qualifiers through 10th place will receive the team jacket or shirt.
- 4. Lettering: Members must participate in 75% of the qualifying rodeos and have a GPA of 2.0 (based on the last GPA earned before the State Finals rodeo) or better to receive a letter. Honor Roll is for a GPA of 3.0 or better.
- 5. Qualification to Rodeo: Report cards must be submitted to the Membership Secretary before competing in the fall rodeos, before competing in the spring rodeos, and before the State Finals. Member must be in good standing.
- 6. Entry Fee Breakdown: Contestants will pay the following entry fee per event: $18 per timed event, $38 per rough stock event, $30 per go in cutting and reined cow horse, plus $5 jackpot and $4 awards fees per event, and $3 per day for Central Entry.
- 7. Refund of Entry Fee: All fees must be paid in full at the rodeo. Entry fees only are refundable when a vet or medial slip is postmarked within 3 days of the rodeo and submitted to the Central Entry Secretary. Only cutting, reined cow horse, barrels and poles can be a vet out. The jackpot, awards and central entry fees are non-refundable.
- 8. No Show Fine: A No Show fine of $25 per rodeo weekend will be charged to any contestant who does not show up for the scheduled performance and does not notify the Central Entry Secretary at least one day before that performance that he/she is unable to attend. This fine is in addition to any entry fees that are due. Any contestant who has a "No Show" fine levied against him/her will be ineligible to rodeo until the fine in question is paid in full.
- 9. Late Entries: After the books close for a rodeo, late entries will be accepted through Central Entry for 36 hours after regular entries close, with a $10 fee per day and will be placed in the least advantageous position in the draw from all member entries. No other entries will be accepted after this time. The $10 fee will be payable to Central Entry.
- 10. Points: Members receive points for 1st through 10th place in each event at qualifying rodeos.
- 11. State Finals Points: Rodeos will be capped at 16 per year. (8 weekends) Members carry their highest points in an event from 75% of total rodeos into state finals.
- 12. Back Numbers: Contestants must have their back numbers on at all times in and around the rodeo grounds, from the time the contestant checks in until they leave the grounds to return home.
- 13. NSF Check: If the association or any qualifying rodeo committee receives an NSF check, the NSF check will be dealt with in accordance to the NSF Check Policy as approved by the Board of Directors.
- 14. Timers: There will be two official timers at all rodeos. All timers are required to use digital watches which record to the hundredth of a second. Timers will record their individual times. The two times will then be averaged (rounded down to the nearest hundredth) by the timers and then given to the announcer. The average will then become the official time. In cases where only one watch records a time, that time shall be used. The timer who missed a time will record a "/" on the official timers sheet to signify a missed time. The recorded times shall stand and take priority over a verbal announcement. Poles and barrels will be timed an electric eye when available and recorded in 1/1000ths.
- 15. Western Attire: All officers and directors, including students, when in an official capacity, shall be in western attire. Hat is optional except when in the arena, where full western attire shall be worn.
- 16. Rodeo Judge/Timer Pool: WSHSRA shall maintain a list of qualified judges and timers, each of whom has been approved by the board of directors, for all rodeo committees to choose from when hiring staff for their rodeo. Names may be added at any board of directors meeting as needed.
- 17. Pickup Men/Bull Fighter Pool: WSHSRA shall maintain a list of qualified pickup men and bull fighters, each of whom has been approved by the board of directors, for all rodeo committees to choose from when hiring staff for their rodeo. Names may be added at any board of directors meeting as needed.
- 18. PAC Committee: A committee of three, herein known as the Personnel Approval Committee (PAC), with proven knowledge in all aspects of rodeo, including but not limited to: rough stock, timed events and cutting, will be appointed by the President of WSHSRA. State secretary will provide prospective rodeo committee an application from the must be submitted to the PAC for rodeo personnel approval, at least 30 days prior to rodeo. All personnel must be approved by the PAC. PAC will be responsible to ensure that qualified personnel will be provided at each rodeo, ie; judges, timers, contractors, bull fighters and pickup men. All personnel, ie, judges, timers, contractors, bull fighters and pickup men will be reviewed by the PAC and recommendation for approval or disapproval of the sanction made to the executive board. Qualified personnel are as follows: A. Must be approved by PAC B. Member in good standing in an approved association, ie, NPRA, ProWest, PRCA
- 19. Rodeo dates: Dates for all rodeos shall be scheduled prior to the first rodeo of the year. Committees may then submit bids for those weekends. Scheduled weekends that are not approved for a specific committee shall be held as state run rodeos.
- 20. Event Sections: When an event is run in multiple sections the number of contestants in each section must be as equal as possible. Only events with 30 or more contestants may have three sections.
- 21. Rule Interpretation: If the standing rules conflict with the Association by-laws, the by-laws will take precedence. If the standing rules or by-laws conflict with the currently valid NHSRA rule book, NHSRA rules will take precedence. Final interpretation of said by-laws or rules is by the Executive Board.
- 22. Jackpot: In the event that there are not enough qualified times/scores for the entire jackpot payoff, the money is to be split by payoff percentages among those qualified. Events with more than 20 contestants will pay 5 places.
- 23. Membership List: A $50 fee will be charged to vendors for the WSHSRA membership list. The membership list will be sold only to vendors deemed to be in the best interest of the association by the Executive Board.
- 24. Voting: All members in good standing shall have a vote at any general membership meeting. Adult memberships may be purchased through the membership secretary.
- 25. Non-Member Entries: Non-members may enter one rodeo only and will be placed in the least advantageous position in the event draw. They will be charged a $10 fee in addition to all applicable entry fees and must have all fees paid to the State Treasurer no later than Wednesday prior to the rodeo, or will be drawn out. Central Entry will notify State Treasurer of the non-member entry. Treasurer will notify rodeo secretary when fees are paid.

26. Any member or member's family that has hooked up to power and/or water at a WSHSRA sanctioned rodeo and who has not notified and paid the rodeo secretary the amount due before leaving the grounds for the weekend will owe that amount plus a $50 fine, payable before the member is allowed to compete at another WSHSRA sanctioned rodeo.
27. If a team roping partner is injured and unable to compete at a rodeo(s) where entries have closed, the uninjured partner can pick from contestants who are not already entered in team roping, and if unable to find a partner that way, then will draw from willing team ropers, which would count against their 4 draw opportunities for the year. Points will not count for the drawn partner.
28. NO WSHSRA sanctioned rodeo may begin unless a complete set of sponsorship flags are carried in the Grand Entry.
